Charles Leeman Appointed To Board Of Control

Former Omaha Mayor Named

Prominent Insurance Executive, Demo To Take $6,500 Post Immediately

Charles W. Leeman, 62-year-old prominent Nebraska businessman and former Omaha mayor, Monday accepted appointment as the third member of the state Board of Control.

Leeman's appointment came from Gov. Victor Anderson. He succeeds William Hulsizer, a Democrat who resigned because of ill health. The other two members of the Board are Republicans, so the third member was required to be a Democrat.

Leeman's appointment is for the rest of Hulsizer's six-year term, which began only last July 1 when Hulsizer replaced William Diers. The post pays a total of $6,500 per year, of which part is for management of state institutions and part for the Board's duties in charge of the state Assistance Department.

Other members of the Board are Mrs. Catherine Martin of Kearney and Thomas Dredla of Crete.

A. C. Eichberg, administrative assistant to the governor, said Monday night, "The governor feels that since Leeman has had excellent experience as mayor of Omaha and in public affairs, and has been interested in public work for many years, he will do a fine service for the state."

Eichberg said the new board member will take up his duties "immediately." Asked if that meant Tuesday, Eichberg said, "Yes."

Queried about Leeman's business interests, Eichberg said that Leeman had disposed of his insurance holdings, but had done so before he had been contacted about the Board post. He will give his full time to the state position, Eichberg said.

Leeman is a well-known business and insurance executive and was mayor of Omaha from 1945 to 1948. In 1947 he served on the executive committee of the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

The Texas-born Omaha organized the Metropolitan Accident and Health Insurance Co. of Omaha and had been its president and general manager since 1933. He had been president and general manager of Union Pacific Finance Corp. since 1937.

He was educated in the Texas public schools and Burns Business College at Tyler, Tex.

In 1941-42 he was president of the Nebraska Accident and Health Underwriters and has served on the law and legislative committee of the National Accident and Health Underwriters from 1942-46.

From 1923-33 he was vice president and sales manager of the Union Insurance Co. of Wichita, Kan.

Many Honors

Leeman has had a host of honorary titles bestowed him ranging from Admiral in Great Nebraska Navy to an honorary chief of the Arapahoe Indian Tribe. He is a life member of the Parent Teachers Assn., a Mason, Elk, Eagle, an Odd Fellow and a member of the Order of Ahepa.

The new Board member is Past Potentate of the Omaha Tangier Temple of the Shrine. He is a 32nd degree Mason.

He is a member of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, National Aeronautics Assn., honorary member of the Marine Corps League and Air Reserve Assn., Ad-Sell league, Peoples Forum and YMCA.

During WW II, Leeman was chairman of the Omaha downtown Ration Board and from 1950-51 he was state chairman of the Rheumatoid Arthritis committee.

Leeman has served as president of the Omaha Optimist Club in 1942-43, Business Men's Breakfast Club in 1939-40 and a member of several Omaha civic development clubs.

'Air Motorcycle'

LONDON (AP)—Development of an amphibious helicopter known as an "aerial motorcycle" was reported by Moscow radio.

The helicopter, with top speed of 75 miles an hour, is designed to take off from—and land on—decks of ships, water or land.

"In the event of engine failure in the air," the broadcast said, "the helicopter's self-rotating propellers act as a parachute, enabling the aircraft to descend gently."

Tractor Tosses Adlai Into Oregon Canyon

Stevenson Uninjured In 35-Foot Tumble Aboard Snow Cat

TIMBERLINE LODGE, Ore. (AP)—A snow tractor broke through an overhanging snow cornice and rolled over, carrying Adlai Stevenson and five others into a snow canyon on Mt. Hood Monday. No one was hurt in the drop of about 35 feet.

Stevenson, campaigning for the Democratic presidential nomination, said he braced his hands on the metal sides and top of the vehicle as it started to go over. The driver, John Macone of the lodge staff, cut the ignition swiftly as the tractor started to roll.

Ralph Wiese, veteran district forest ranger, said Macone's action prevented a fire. The party, he said, was "very lucky."

Front Seat

Stevenson was in the front with Macone. In the rear were Wiese; Alfred Corbett, Portland attorney and head of the Oregon Stevenson for president committee; Arnold Sakalyn, Portland lumberman friend of Stevenson; and Dennis Sock, Los Angeles free lance photographer.

The metal top of the tractor was damaged as it rolled. The tractor came to a rest on its tracks and the party got out and scrambled up a grade out of the canyon. They walked the somewhat less than

American Is Slain In Morocco

PARIS (AP)—A French Press Agency dispatch from Casablanca said a U.S. Air Force officer was shot to death in Morocco Monday night. He was identified as Capt. Nelson Brown, a military police officer at the U.S. air base at Nouaceur near Casablanca. The dispatch gave these details:

Brown and his wife were driving in their own car to Boukoura, five miles south of Casablanca. He stopped to offer help to another car which seemed in difficulty.

As he stepped out of his car he was stoned, then shot through the head. He was killed instantly.

His wife drove to Casablanca and notified police.

It was the first slaying of a U.S. soldier in Morocco under such circumstances.

Ike To Get Medical Finding Today

2nd Term Decision Nearing

It Probably Will Come After Georgia Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will get a Valentine Day medical report Tuesday on the condition of his heart. On Wednesday he will leave for a vacation in Georgia, and he may reach a final decision there on whether to seek re-election.

A team of physicians, including Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston, will meet at the White House around noon Tuesday to start analyzing the results of a series of tests the President underwent Saturday at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

The doctors will tell Eisenhower how his heart is standing the strain of the presidency more than 4½ months after suffering a coronary thrombosis in Denver last Sept. 24.

Last In Mid-December

His last previous full-scale examination was in mid-December.

At that time the physicians said they should know by the middle of February just how complete Eisenhower's recovery was going to be. The President plans to weigh the results of the new physical in deciding whether to run again, but he told a news conference last week he probably will rely more on how he feels than on the doctors' reports.

The President also said last week he should have enough information by March 1 to make up his mind about bidding for a second term. And he strongly indicated he would announce his plans round that time.

Leaves Wednesday

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Monday the President will leave by plane Wednesday morning for about a week's vacation at the 600-acre plantation of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey at Thomasville, Ga.

The doctors probably will permit him to do some quail hunting there, and he may get in a bit of practice golf.

The President said last Wednesday that he probably would announce his decision regarding a second term at a news conference, once he has made up his mind.

Hagerty said Eisenhower will hold no news conference this week because of his scheduled departure for Thomasville the day he usually meets with newsmen. He would not completely rule out the possibility of an Eisenhower news conference during his stay in Georgia, but he said he thought it unlikely.

Vast Aswan Dam Work Starts Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Egypt will be in a position, because of World Bank and U.S.-British financing, to start work this year on its vast Aswan Dam on the Nile River.

Department press officer Lincoln White told a news conference the United States and Britain will send Egypt a total of 70 million dollars to launch the project as soon as the necessary administrative steps have been taken. After that, he said, loans are "possible." These loans would total about 130 million dollars, it is understood.

Wurst New Municipalities League Secretary-Treasurer

Beals Is Ending 30-Year Service

A. G. Wurst of Wahoo will succeed C. E. Beals of Lincoln as executive secretary-treasurer of the League of Nebraska Municipalities.

Beals, who has held the position since October, 1926, announced Monday he would retire July 1. Wurst will start his duties April 1 and will work with Beals until the latter retires.

Wurst, 52, has been in the insurance business in Wahoo the last two years. He operated a farm equipment business there for nine years and prior to that was a supervisor and salesman with the Standard Oil Co. for 12 years.

Wahoo Civic Leader

Wurst has been a member of the Wahoo City Council since 1949. He is a past president of the Wahoo City Council since 1949. He is a past president of the Wahoo Chamber of Commerce, is treasurer of the Lions Club there, is a past master of the Wahoo Masonic Lodge and is a high priest of the Wahoo Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

A member of the Methodist Church, Wurst is married and has two children. His son is a senior at the University of Nebraska and his daughter a junior at Wahoo High School.

Kansas Native

Beals announced his intention to resign at the league's board of directors meeting in Lincoln. Beals was born on a farm near Carroll, Mo., attended Baker University at Baldwin, Kan., and from 1902 to 1912 was with the Santa Fe Railroad in Kansas City.

From 1912 to 1921 he was with the Burlington, first in the transportation service and then as express agent at Crete. He was city clerk at Crete and then served as mayor and postmaster.

Since he joined the league the organization has grown from a membership of 61 cities and towns to 403, and the league's official publication has grown from a 16-page quarterly to a 44-page monthly.

Ideas War Gets New U.S. Weapon—'People's Capitalism'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government Monday showed off its latest weapon in the war of ideas against the Communists. It's called "People's Capitalism in the U.S.A."

President Eisenhower, making his first public appearance at such an event since his heart attack last September, was the first to inspect the exhibit. He spent 15 minutes examining the display at the Union Station and said he was "delighted" with it, that he "liked it very much."

The exhibit will be shipped to Europe and Asia for display this year in an effort to "combat Communist lies about our way of life."

Houses—1776 and 1956

It's a visual study of American life—industrial, cultural, religious, social. Its high spots are a cutaway version of a 1776 model house and a spanking new prefabricated home replete with electrical gadgetry.

Escorting Eisenhower on his tour were Theodore Streibert, president of the U.S. Information Agency, and Theodore Reppel, president of the Advertising Council, a private group which thought up the idea.

The President had a few suggestions. For instance, he thought a sign at the exit ought to be at the entrance. Reppel said that was "a good idea."

This sign describes American capitalism as the answer to man's dream of "the better things of life," of his aspirations for a country in which "each man is as good as his neighbors." It concludes: "Dynamic New Way"

"America, like the rest of the world, has marched toward this shining goal. Thanks to good fortune and hard work, a dynamic new way of life has come about in the United States.

"It is, in truth, people's capital-

Balloons Protested By Poles

Right To Seek Compensation Claimed

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)

— Communist Poland angrily protested and claimed the right to seek compensation Monday in a note delivered to the United Nations and the United States on "American balloons."

The protest against the balloons floating over Polish territory was the strongest of its kind since Russia and its European satellites launched their anti-balloon campaign last week.

Communist Czechoslovakia had charged that 22 persons were killed and four injured when a Czech airliner allegedly struck one of the balloons on Jan. 18 near Levoca in Slovakia and crashed.

The Polish note Monday was delivered simultaneously to U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and the American Embassy in Warsaw.

All Members

The note asked U. N. circulation among all 76 members.

It charged the balloons had injured Polish citizens and damaged property in failing to the ground. One balloon, the note claimed, had endangered an airplane carrying Canadian External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson to Moscow last Oct. 5.

The communication also echoed Soviet bloc charges that the balloons were used for military intelligence purposes and that one was found containing a camera which had taken "88 photographs of the terrain over which it traveled."

The U. S. has explained to Russia that it had been sending weather balloons which apparently strayed behind the Iron Curtain. Launching of the weather balloons was halted following the Soviet protest.

'Red Faced'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police think a burglar who broke into a parking lot shed here should be red-faced indeed.

Charles W. Beeler, operator of the lot, aroused by numerous burglaries, rigged up a surprise for anyone entering the shed illegally.

He put an open can of red paint inside over the door and connected it with a wire so it would trip when the door opened.

It must have worked. Police said paint markings indicated the intruder not only got the full shower, but also slipped on the floor.

ism—capitalism of the people, by the people, and for the people. It is bright with promise as the way of the future."

The President also drew a "good idea" comment from Reppel by suggesting the display emphasize religious freedom in the United States.

Panama Man Secretly Weds Terry Moore

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A Panama insurance man has secretly wooed and wed Terry Moore of the movies.

The actress' mother disclosed Monday that Miss Moore married Eugene McGrath last New Year's Day in Las Vegas, Nev., and that they now are honeymooning in Caracas, Venezuela.

Why the secrecy? "Mr. McGrath isn't used to this Hollywood publicity," said Terry's mother, Mrs. Lamar Koford.

Miss Moore, 26, was married by Las Vegas Judge A. S. Henderson under legal name, Helen Luella Koford. She is divorced from Glenn Davis, former West Point football star.

Gas Blast Kills Three

... In Toledo, O.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Only survivor of a gas explosion that killed three men in a downtown meat wholesale house early Monday was Stanley Damschroder, 55, who said his cigarette lighter touched it off.

Damschroder said he flicked his lighter and "the whole place went boom," leveling the three-story brick building and killing his fellow workers, Paul Borchering, 54, Melvin Kegelman, 46, and James Libhart, 41.

The 4 a.m. blast in the cooling room of Beagle Meats Division of Hygrade Food Products Co. also demolished three adjacent buildings, all deserted, and shattered windows for two blocks around. Windows were broken in the Commodore Perry Hotel, the city's largest, less than two blocks away.

Fire Chief Arnold Papenhagen, who estimated the damage at a million dollars, said gas exploded, but said he could not determine what kind.

The four men had just started work in the 35x50-foot cooling room when the explosion occurred.

EUROPE'S COLD TOLL MOUNTS

... Reaches 390

LONDON (AP)—Avalanche disasters in Yugoslavia and new storms boosted the death toll to 390 Monday night in the third week of Europe's coldest wave of the 20th Century.

Belgrade Radio said 58 Yugoslavs lost their lives and another 19 were gravely injured in slides that buried seven villages in the mountains of southern Yugoslavia. Many others were missing.

The crash of a mercy plane added to the toll.

Fresh snowstorms swirled across the continent already chilled by days of frigid blasts from Siberia.

Join Mountaineers

Yugoslav troops joined mountaineers in rescue efforts but were handicapped by snowdrifts 12 feet deep in places. A relief train with doctors, equipment and food bucked its way through the snow to the stricken area.

In Austria, two women were believed killed in avalanches. Upward of 600 villages in Italy, France, Greece and Yugoslavia were isolated by the snow.

The U.S. Air Force and aircraft of European nations shuttled out on mercy missions with blankets, clothes, food and fuel.

The wreckage of a Greek Air Force Dakota—on a mercy flight with 17 persons aboard—was spotted on 5,800 foot Mt. Dyrphus, 50 miles north of Athens.

Record Seen

NEW YORK (INS)—A $60-billion construction year, biggest of all time, was predicted for 1956 by H. E. Foreman, managing director of the Associated General Contractors of America, at the organization's convention in New York. The association just completed its tenth record-breaking year with $57-billion worth of construction in 1955. Foreman predicted the industry will move steadily on and may reach $75-billion by 1965.

Georgia Joins

ATLANTA (INS)—Georgia joined Alabama, Virginia and South Carolina in declaring formally an intention to ignore the U.S. Supreme Court decision that segregation is unconstitutional.

The Georgia legislature declared, instead, that it considers the court's ruling unconstitutional, contending it involves "illegal encroachment" on state sovereignty.

2 Youths Held For Grocery Store Burglary

Two young married men from Lincoln, ages 17 and 19, were jailed here on open charges Monday night in connection with the Garland Grocery burglary at Prairie Home Feb. 1.

Part of the $140 worth of merchandise stolen from the store was found by the sheriff's office and Lincoln Police in the apartments of the two men. The men consumed a quantity of stolen meat, officials said.

The sheriff's office said one of the men signed a statement admitting the burglary.

A typewriter stolen from the grocery was recovered at the Polsky Loan Co. at 115 So. 9th where it had been pawned, law enforcement officials said.

Deputy County Sheriff Del Ziemman said the pair used the 19-year-old man's car in the burglary.

Ziemman said charges may be filed against the men by the county attorney Tuesday.

'War Party'

BRYAN, O. (INS)—Gov. George N. Craig described the Democratic Party as a "war party" and asserted it could not be trusted to keep the peace.

The Hoosier chief executive spoke to a Lincoln Day luncheon of the Ohio Republicans at Bryan. He said he does not believe the Democrats ever intentionally committed the nation to war but he added:

"They just blunder along and allow themselves to be maneuvered into wars. When they faced a crisis, they either acted rashly or indecisively."

Slain Missionary's Wife Has A Baby

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—An 8 pound 1 ounce baby boy was born to Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr., 27, whose husband was among four missionaries slain by Aucas Indians in the jungles of Ecuador last month.

Both mother and baby were reported doing well Monday at Pontiac General Hospital. The baby was named Matthew Jay McCully.

Following her husband's death, Mrs. McCully came to Pontiac to stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hobolth.

She has two other children, Stephen, 3, and Michael, 1. McCully formerly lived in Des Moines.

Stanton Stock Feeders Want Benson Fired

STANTON, Neb. (AP)—The Stanton Livestock Feeders' Assn. released a copy of a resolution sent to President Eisenhower demanding "the immediate appointment of a new fully qualified Secretary of Agriculture who is more sympathetic toward the problem of the American farmer."

The resolution declared that "Mr. Benson, after being fully informed of the fabulous price spread between livestock and the retail price of meat paid by the housewife, has declined to take necessary measures to correct this situation."

"For instance, approximately one-fifth of all livestock now going to market is being confiscated as clear net profit over and above that received last year."

"The present farm situation has become increasingly worse during the past few months," the resolution said, "and if not stopped immediately will result in a national depression."

The association said the resolution was passed by unanimous vote during a special business meeting of the group.

Joe McCarthy Tells Why He Voted For Gas Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) is telling his constituents he voted for the controversial natural gas bill to save them from "higher and higher prices" and possibly a cutoff in the gas supply.

His explanation was made available to newsmen here Monday in the form of a "report to the people." It was understood McCarthy is having 50,000 copies printed for distribution in his home state.

Records in the Wisconsin secretary of state's office of Madison showed that on Nov. 3, 1952, the committee supporting McCarthy's campaign for re-election received a $2,000 contribution from "N. B. Keck."

A $2,500 campaign contribution offered to Sen. Case (R-SD) during the gas bill fight has been traced by a Senate Investigating Committee to the personal funds of H. B. Keck, president of the Superior Oil Co. of California.

Class Change Might Improve Safety Record

Lincoln's traffic safety record—not bad in its present class—may get better if the city is placed in a larger population classification.

National Safety Council ratings, based on the number of traffic deaths on a per capita formula, list country-wide safety records in population categories. Lincoln is currently competing in the 50,000-100,000 category.

But Capt. Clinton C. Hurd, traffic education director of the Lincoln Police Department, is writing the Safety Council asking to be placed in the 100,000-200,000 class, based on the city's present estimated population of 120,000 persons.

Although last year's two fatalities tied an all-time record since statistics were first kept in 1926 and placed Lincoln in number two spot in its category, Hurd believes the city would fare better in the bigger city classification.

As a rule, switches are made only on the basis of the federal census, which in 1950 listed Lincoln's population at 98,884.

Hurd estimated the city's population at 120,000, by using factors such as birth rate records since 1950 and school enrollment figures.

So. American Building Boom Mammoth, NU Lecturer Says

Latin America is now going through one of the greatest building booms in the history of the world, according to Leonard J. Currie, director of the Inter-American Housing Center at Bogota, Colombia.

Currie, former professor of architecture at Harvard University, was guest lecturer at the University of Nebraska Monday.

Modern architecture in Latin America, he said, reflects the social, cultural and economic situations of the various localities. For example, he said in Rio de Janeiro the architecture, like the city is gay and warm, while in Bogota it is much more severe and restrained in keeping with the cold, sober, mountainous area.

Val Rings A Bell

There may be those who will conclude former Nebraska Gov. Val Peterson spoke out of turn and in doing so stuck his foot in his mouth. But in the eyes of this editor, Mr. Peterson rang a bell with the statement he made in Chicago at the military and industrial atomic conference.

During a panel discussion, former Gov. Peterson said that military aid to stricken communities must remain subordinate to local civil defense. Then he continued:

"We don't want a militaristic state. For the good of both the military and the American people, the military should not be extended further into civilian life."

That, we take it, is a common-sense statement of the thinking of a great majority of American citizens. They are proud of their military. But at heart the great majority of Americans are, as former Gov. Peterson suggested, dedicated to civilian government.

A Town To Be Envied

One could cite any number of reasons why it would be pleasant to live out in Nebraska's cattle country. There is something free and sovereign in the wide open spaces. And western people are hospitable.

But for sentimental reasons, at this time of year, Valentine is the ideal community.

It has become the official post office for Valentine's day. There is nothing better than playing third person in an exchange of love and affection between people. And this past week or so the Valentine post office has been cancelling thousands of letters which will find their way around the world to express the fine sentiments of Valentine's day.

Valentine has been performing this service for years in ever increasing volume.

We understand the town was not named for Saint Valentine, but for an early day congressman of the same name. But that does not detract from the community's especially good fortune. It only gives it a double reason for existence. And certainly the assignment as Valentine capital of the world is no hardship. Certainly with so much love and affection moving through the community a good deal of it must certainly rub off, making it a town of unusual good will.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

In a matter of a few days, the great debate was expected to get under way in the United States Senate. "Great" can be used to describe it, admittedly. What happens in the Senate, we are told, will determine whether the effort to write farm legislation in this 84th Congress succeeds.

We hope Senate leadership has the backbone to call the hand of Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, and back of the secretary, President Eisenhower himself. Farm people—patient, understanding, slow to anger, and from the very nature of farm life itself, imbued with a sense of humility—could insist that this issue which comes before the Senate of the United States concerns not only their pocketbook but is a matter of faith. It goes all the way back to 1952. Secretary Benson says that he is of the opinion that to include the program of rigid supports of 90 per cent of parity would lead to a veto by the man in the White House—incidentally a veto which he himself would recommend. The administration's crusade under Benson to substitute a system of flexible supports ranging from 70 to 90 per cent of parity is at best a bit belated. It is not what President Eisenhower told a farm audience in Minnesota in his campaign in 1952. Then the President announced without reservation his full approval of a program providing support prices at 90 per cent of parity in the market places, whatever the President had in mind by that expression, and at the same time suggesting that it was his hope the farmer could receive 100 per cent of parity. What has happened since then? The President appointed Mr. Benson to the post of secretary of agriculture. Then, and not until then, did the people on the farms discover a flexible price support program was the order of the day. So that's that. The secretary announces his opposition in this approaching showdown battle.

After all, the secretary of agriculture, it is to be believed, in his continuing insistence on flexible supports is only voicing the views of his superior. Mr. Benson is carrying out the President's wishes, we are forced to assume, or the secretary would not be in the post he holds. It is time for the farm people—for the people of Nebraska, one of the states most dependent on agriculture for its economic good health—to quit blaming Benson for their mounting difficulties while excusing President Eisenhower.

To absolve the President and to direct all criticism against his secretary of agriculture is to insist that it is case of the tail wagging the dog. At the time any cabinet member takes his post, protocol provides that the cabinet official leaves his resignation with the President. The President may exercise the prerogative of accepting a resignation whenever he cares to do so. Now we are told that both Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Benson are willing to place most of their eggs in one basket—the soil bank plan. The soil bank plan is admirable, it would seem, over the long pull. It is less effective as a short-range undertaking. We used to hear a lot some years back about a rubber stamp Congress. Apparently some of the same people who shouted to the skies against the idea that Congress should not serve as a rubber stamp for the President see nothing out of the way in Mr. Benson's demand that the Senate of the United States jump rope.

Fact is, it has been evident for some time there has been a very cynical atmosphere developing in Washington. Now we are told that there are too many farmers, too many inefficient farmers, too many people trying to eke out a living on the soil, people who should be holding down jobs in the cities. What a laugh that could be if it did not actually present a heartache for thousands of farm families who find themselves now facing sterner days!

Take Your Choice

A Rochester woman, crossing a street, found her path blocked by a limousine. To the surprise of the driver she simply opened the door, walked through the car and out the other side, pausing long enough to give him a friendly pat on the shoulder. All we can say to that is that she may get taken for a ride someday, but she is never going to be a traffic casualty.

DREW PEARSON

Pressure On Ike; Reds' Peace Trap

WASHINGTON—The pressure on President Eisenhower, as he takes his final medical, is still continuing. The pressure to run comes from three general groups:

1. The Palace Guard—the boys in the White House who want to keep their jobs. They are just as ardent as the Democrats who worked under Roosevelt and Truman and who were determined that their boss must run again.

2. The big politico—GOP Leaders on Capitol Hill like Joe Martin plus GOP Chairman Len Hall don't see any way the party can do without Ike, and they demand that he run.

3. The Business Brain-Trusters—Up in New York men like Gen. Lucius Clay, former commander of American troops in Germany; Sidney Weinberg, head of the giant Wall Street firm Goldman-Sachs; and ex-governor Tom Dewey, believe Ike is essential to save the peace and our economic way of life—plus their point of view regarding American business.

There have been sobering thoughts, however, since ex-governor Oswald West of Oregon accused other Republicans of murdering Governor Paul Patterson of Oregon.

"The death of Paul Patterson was not only a tragedy," said ex-governor West, himself a Republican. "He was forced into a Senate race by selfish members of the Republican Party imbued with an obsession to beat Wayne Morse."

Note—Governor Patterson had a heart condition. After deciding to take on the campaign against Wayne Morse he had a heart attack. Ike, thanks to outside pressure, had urged him to run.

—Ike Fell in Trap—

There was a good reason why Eisenhower held up his second reply to Premier Bulganin on a U.S.-Soviet Friendship Pact after firing the first reply back in Bulganin's teeth. He found he had fallen into a Soviet trap.

John Foster Dulles, as usual, had acted without consulting his advisers, especially astute U. S. Ambassador Chip Bohlen in Moscow. Instead, Foster acted as if Joe McCarthy was glowering over his shoulder.

The trap Eisenhower fell into was that the Kremlin wants more than anything else to show us up as not wanting peace.

Most important popular development in Russia today, Ambassador Bohlen has advised, is that the Russian people have come to believe the Kremlin's peace propaganda. As a result, today they could not easily be stampeded into war.

In the past, the Kremlin has had the whip-hand in starting war. It has no congress to consult, no critical newspapers to worry about, or commentators to goad it. War could have been declared in the past at the drop of a hat.

This was the reason for Bulganin's two friendship notes, namely, to trap the United States into rebuffing Russian friendship so the Kremlin can reverse itself and point out that the U. S. has spurned Russian friendship, that the U. S. wants war.

Kuchel Labors In Political Shadow

LOS ANGELES — Amid the excitement of their potential four-dark-horse parlay for the presidency, California Republicans have almost forgot they have a junior senator who is up for re-election this fall.

Reminded that they are also in a fight for a valuable Senate seat on which control of the upper house might hinge, they are apt to suggest that the hide will go with the hog, if Republicans carry California. They think honest, amiable Tom Kuchel will be re-elected. In a close battle they expect to have trouble.

Kuchel simply has not been able to establish himself as a personality against the national effluence of Chief Justice Earl Warren, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Senate Minority Leader William P. Knowland and Governor Goodwin Knight. At home, as in Washington, he is thought of as that reliable young man Warren appointed to the vacancy left by Nixon's elevation to the vice-presidency.

Actually Kuchel got himself elected handily in 1954 to the remainder of Nixon's term. But Nixon still stole all spotlights as the controversial top campaigner that year for the GOP. Thus Kuchel's best political asset still seems to be the thought that if Warren picked him he must be pretty good.

It is uncertain whether Democrats will be able to capitalize on the negative quality of Kuchel's appeal. Party leaders are trying hard to do so with State Senator Richard Richards, age 39, who is colorful, fluent and virile—but also inexperienced.

Richards is described by one supporter as "a handsome Neuberger with more modesty." He entered politics only two years ago, and rather sensationally when he defeated Mrs. Mildred Younger for the only state senate seat this immense county has. Mrs. Younger is young, attractive, and experienced in civic affairs. And she had ample money and all the press.

When her expectations of an easy triumph were discovered to be a mirage, the forces trained in the Nixon campaigns turned against Richards some of the innumerable about his liberalism which Nixon used so successfully against Jerry Voorhis and Helen Gahagan Douglas. But it was either too late or that style of campaign, like the more frontal McCarthyism, is worn out.

Richards himself hesitated to seek national office, but agreed to go if he were endorsed by the Democratic clubs at Fresno. He was. His rival, former Rep. Samuel Yorty, who had lost to Kuchel by 300,000 votes two years ago, vainly sought to turn the Fresno tide. In the process he took a flyer in Nixonism himself by circulating copies of a brief Richards has signed for the American Civil Liberties Union in a case involving charges of Communism.

BOB CONSIDINE

Lemay Says Russia Could Get To Us

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, OMAHA—Gen. Curtis Lemay, head of the greatest deterrent force in the history of arms, said today that the Red air force has—in addition to pure jet bombers of the type of the B-47 and B-52—a big turbo-prop bomber "good enough to get through our defenses."

The SAC commander, a man wholly unimpressed by recent Russian smiles and peace overtures, described the Red bomber as follows:

"From all we can learn, they're building planes comparable in performance to our '47 and '52 but they also have a turbo-prop. (Ed. note: a jet-engine propeller plane). We had to skip that design—that intermediary stage between standard piston engine planes and pure jets—because we didn't have the money. Their turbo prop is good enough to get through our defenses."

I asked Lemay if the speeded-up long-range missile program would see SAC, and its intercontinental manned bombers, side-tracked in importance.

"We want the long-range missile more than anybody," he snapped. "Why shouldn't we? Who wants to fly something and be shot at? When one of sufficient range and efficiency is developed, SAC will be in charge of it."

But he made it bluntly plain that SAC isn't marking time waiting for the space experts to perfect a manless substitute for today's bombing weapons. SAC is pressing for more B-52s, the 8-jet Boeing bomber that will carry the H-bomb anywhere in the world at close to the speed of sound and return to its U.S. base by means of aerial refueling; more 6-jet B-47s, the swift medium bomber, and more F-101s, a twin-engine fighter-bomber which has touched 1,100 miles an hour.

"Our mission is to be ready to retaliate immediately—this minute—if the enemy hits us," Lemay told us in his big, model-filled office. "That means we've got to have the best available hardware on hand, not in 1960 or 1965 but now, and next year and next and next. We've got to have that hardware in such numbers, strength and efficiency that nobody will strike us. If there's no profit in aggression, there's no war."

Lemay is deeply concerned by the low re-enlistment figures among technicians and other skilled airmen.

"The only way to stop that trend," he said, biting a cigar, "is to pay our people—establish careers in the service comparable to the careers outside. The commander of one of his ships—which might cost six or seven million dollars—makes from $500 to $700 a month. A commercial airline pilot makes from $15,000 to $20,000 a year... which is more than I make."

He doesn't see the long-range B-52 causing overseas SAC bases to shut down.

"We're in the hauling business," Lemay said. "If you have a short haul you operate more efficiently. You can do things with your gas loads to give you higher altitude over the target and more bomb load. Such fields are worth keeping up because you can bring crippled planes into them."

HAPPY WIVES SAY:

Good Husband Is Best Valentine

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Women's Service Editor
Women give lots of reasons for being specially nice to their husbands on Valentine's day—but Mrs. Robert Wagner, wife of the mayor of New York, provided an "extra-sentimental" reason in a poll of famous wives by International News Service.

"It's because he was able to wangle a leave from the Air Force so we could be married on Valentine's day," she smiled.

That was 14 years ago, on Feb. 14th, 1942. Wagner at the time was a lieutenant.

Mrs. Rocky Marciano, Mrs. Ed Sullivan, Mrs. Jackie Robinson and wives of other notables gave other reasons. But a dozen well-known wives agreed that character and not money or fame, is what makes hubby their perfect valentine.

Mrs. Barbara Marciano, for instance, isn't proud of Rocky simply because he's world heavyweight boxing champion, but because "he's a very good father and close to our little girl, Mary Ann."

And Mrs. Sylvia Sullivan said of her TV star husband: "He's just as much fun as the day we were married. In the words of the song, 'He may have been a headache but he's never been a bore.'"

Sullivan's ability to "be the same, in failure or success," was also a factor in his wife's pride.

The same reason for "being proud of my husband" was given by Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein III. The wife of the famous song writer said:

"I admire him for his courage, even in failure, and his inability to accept defeat."

Mrs. Sam Goldwyn phrased it differently. The movie producer's wife said she was proud of her "valentine" because "when the chips are down he always comes through."

The wives of men very much in the public eye saw their husbands quite differently from the way the celebrities are supposed to be.

Mrs. Jackie Robinson probably could get an argument from many a baseball umpire or bailplayer, but she's proud of Jackie because he has "an even temper."

Mrs. Rachel Robinson summed up her Brooklyn Dodger mate as "an excellent father and husband, always very warm and affectionate, with a good sense of humor and an even temper."

The wife of one of the nation's top railroad men, Mrs. Fred G. Gurley, has been married 35 years to the president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe. And why is she proud of him?

"Because he started in a simple way, with nobody in back of him, as a trainmaster's clerk. Now he's a railroad president, and as always, a fine, kind, thoughtful husband."

Mrs. Gurley added: "I'd marry him again tomorrow if I had the chance."

Most other celebrity wives were just as sold on their matrimonial valentines.

All the years that famed comedian Eddie Cantor has been talking about his wife Ida and their five girls, Mrs. Cantor has never complained. Instead she says firmly that she's proud of her husband because "of his love for family and his fellow man, his courage, and his philosophy of life."

Even a newlywed like actress Debbie Reynolds is prouder of Eddie Fisher's character as a husband than of his fame as a singer. Eddie, said Debbie, "is the most considerate man I ever met."

More Light

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We hear a lot about a soil bank for farmers. I'll confess I don't know the necessity of it.

Will the press give us the full text of its proposal. I am interested in the subject.

B. S. KECK

Editor's Note—In his soil bank proposal the President has in mind withdrawal of more than 20 million planted acres now producing surplus crops. Farmers would be paid for taking the land out of production.

Immigration Increase

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I see our President wants a 65,000 immigration increase under which he would give all unused quotas to one nationality. It would seem to me, as it apparently does to Rep. Walter, that this proposal is unwise. Just at this time, one of the issues in Washington is additional funds to further our national defense.

We are told, according to the news dispatches, that the denial of additional funds for defense is to balance the budget. It is no secret that some of our military men believe Russia is in advance of us in national defense.

Z. CORDELL

Brotherhood Week

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The President of the United States has issued a proclamation designating the week beginning Feb. 19 as Brotherhood Week and calling upon all citizens to observe it in every appropriate way. The theme this year is: "Brotherhood for peace and freedom! Believe it! Live it! Support it!"

Brotherhood Week was first conceived by the late Msgr. Hugh W. McMenamin, the universally beloved pastor of the Cathedral of Denver, and was first put into practice in 1934. Since then it has been observed each year throughout the nation. Brotherhood Week seeks to promote understanding and good will among citizens of all faiths, to eradicate racial and religious prejudice, and to foster co-operation among members of all religions in matters affecting the welfare of the community, state and nation. The people of this country are sprung from all the races and nations of the world, and every religious faith finds some representatives here. Despite these differences, Americans have achieved a unity in matters of community action, civic co-operation and devotion to our country in peace and in war that has amazed the world.

Brotherhood Week seeks to prevent the recurrence of the waves of organized bigotry which have periodically swept across our land. In the smoldering embers of racial and religious hatreds lies the dynamite that could wreck our civilization. Through united action we must remove the fuse from that dynamite.

By united action many worthy objectives can be achieved which would be impossible otherwise. Such goals as world peace, religious freedom for all people and the defense of the free world against the aggression of atheistic Communism.

Besides the international objectives, there are many on the community, state and national level. The struggle for social justice, for clean government, and for the promotion of law and order on all these levels can be won only through the co-operation of all groups.

In these trying times of uncertainty, it is well to ponder the words that perhaps have meant so little to most of us in the past: united we stand; divided we fall.

C. M. K.

Organized Farming

Dorchester, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The farmers are scattered over too much territory to be able to organize themselves and that is why things are so unbalanced today. If the government would try to get a plan that would organize market will prove a lot better and also will allow a lot of small farmers who are being driven off the farms to stay put. That would relieve the unemployment situation and give us the right to claim we are the most prosperous country in the world.

ARTHUR BARKER

Not Deposits

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I noticed in the Sunday Journal and Star an article entitled, "Saving and Loan Deposits Up 83.2 Per Cent." This article speaks in several places of the deposits in the Lincoln savings and loan associations.

I wish to call your attention to the fact that such associations do not take deposits. All investments in building and loan associations are in the form of the purchase of capital stock. I realize that such associations refer to deposits and refer to savings accounts which in turn infer a deposit but the relationship of an investor with a building and loan is not of a debtor and creditor relationship but it is a stock ownership.

Your use of the word "deposit" in the article also tends to mislead investors.

I have no quarrel with saving and loan associations. I think that they perform a great service but I do believe that the investors should know fully that they are purchasing stock and that it is not a deposit.

U Of Alabama Says It'll Appeal Order Letting Negroes Enter

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The University of Alabama announced Monday that the order opening the school to Negroes will be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The appeal will be from a Dec. 30 decision by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans, which upheld the ruling of U. S. Dist. Judge Hobart Grooms at Birmingham.

Grooms held that the university cannot exclude Negroes as students because of their race.

The university admitted Autherine Lucy as a student in obedience to the federal court order. She was excluded from the campus recently after increasingly violent demonstrations on the three days she appeared for classes.

Death Threat

University officials said she was threatened with death by an uncontrollable mob Feb. 6, the last day on which she was on the campus at Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Miss Lucy has asked the federal court in Birmingham to order the university to readmit her to the campus, with all privileges of a student.

A hearing was set on the motions by Grooms for Feb. 29.

President Eisenhower has said that the U. S. Department of Justice is looking into the case.

Miss Lucy and another Negro woman, Mrs. Pollie Ann Hudson, began their court fight for admittance to the university 3½ years ago.

One Denied

Mrs. Hudson was denied enrollment on the grounds of her "conduct and marital record." She is seeking a divorce.

She at first asked Judge Grooms to cite university Dean of Admissions William Adams for contempt when she was barred as a student Feb. 1, but dropped the action when it was called for hearing by Grooms Thursday.

A university attorney, who requested that his name not be used, also said that the school will answer Miss Lucy's demand for readmittal to classes "sometime this week."

He declined to say what the nature of the response will be.

Miss Lucy charged that university officials and the board of trustees conspired to allow a situation which brought on the Feb. 6 rioting, so as to permit Miss Lucy's exclusion from classes as a safety measure.

Keep 'Bama White

A mob that at times numbered an estimated 3,000 or more hurled rocks, eggs and mudballs at the woman and officials escorting her. Demonstrators yelled "Hey, hey, ho, ho, Autherine must go," and "Keep 'Bama white."

Dr. O. C. Carmichael, university president, called the coed's charges "untrue, unwarranted and outrageous."

The educator said that if the court orders Miss Lucy readmitted "every effort will be made to make the campus safe for all students, including Autherine Lucy if she returns."

$50,000 Judgment Awarded To Pair From Ex-Inmate

A $50,000 Lancaster District Court judgment has been given Charles Brittain of Alliance and Radford A. Murray of Lincoln against William A. Wagner, former Nebraska Penitentiary inmate.

Wagner was paroled in September, 1953, after being sentenced to a term of four to 10 years for forgery.

Wagner was associated with the plaintiffs in a joint venture under the name of Holly Sales Co., according to plaintiffs' petition.

Plaintiffs charged that Wagner had represented himself as a battery salesman and that Holly Sales purchased accounts which turned out to be fictitious.

The judgment was entered on the basis of the $50,000 damages confessed by Wagner "for money obtained from the plaintiffs by the defendant by false representation and fraud."

The judgment is not subject to discharge by bankruptcy.

Alma Connor, 77, Funeral Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Alma M. Connor, 77, of Lincoln, who died in Omaha Sunday night, will be held in Lincoln Thursday.

Msgr. H. B. Hart will officiate at the services at 9 a.m. Thursday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Burial will be at Calvary, and rosary at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Hodgman-Splain.

Mrs. Connor, who lived at 3062 U, was born in Missouri and had lived in Lincoln for 55 years.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. George Myler of Omaha and Mrs. Agnes Bradford of Cameron, Mo., and several nieces and nephews.

May L. Fee Dies; Was Ex-Lincolnite

May L. Fee, formerly of Lincoln, died at Long Beach, Calif. Funeral and burial will be at Fullerton, Neb.

Miss Fee, who died Saturday, had moved to California about 1920. While in Lincoln she was employed as a proofreader for the Lincoln newspapers.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Roscoe C. Abbott, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. O. J. Fee, both of Lincoln; four nephews; and three more nieces.

FBI Agent Identifies Tool As One Used At Crime Scene

An FBI agent "positively" identified in Lancaster District Court the pair of wire-cutters taken from 53-year-old Carl Freeman, accused of chicken theft, as those used to cut fence wire at the scene of the crime.

Freeman is being tried before a jury on the charge of stealing about 100 chickens from the John Swanson farm about nine miles north of Lincoln last Nov. 22.

Robert Zimmers, FBI laboratory technician at Washington, D.C., testified that microscopic examination of the striated marks on the fence wire "positively matched" those made by the wire-cutters in evidence.

The fence was cut, according to other testimony, to give access to the farmer's field and chicken house.

Earlier, Stanley Diamond, an Omaha produce dealer, identified Freeman as the man who sold him 95 chickens on Nov. 22. Freeman was "waiting at 8 a.m. for me to open my business," Diamond added.

Freeman was arrested about 2:30 a.m. on Dec. 13 when Lancaster County deputy sheriffs found gunny sacks and chicken feathers in his car.

The defendant, who was released from the Nebraska Penitentiary early last year, is charged with chicken theft on second offense and being an habitual criminal.

The state anticipates resting its case Tuesday morning.

Wage Hike Law Midwest Effect 'Not Too Great'

The raising of the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 an hour will not have "too great" an effect in Nebraska, according to Sydney R. Sample of Kansas City, an investigation supervisor with the U. S. Department of Labor.

"The greatest impact," he said, "will be in the South." Sample estimated only four per cent of workers in the Midwest now covered by the minimum wage law will receive wage increases as a result of the increase.

Sample spoke to more than 50 persons Monday at a wage-hour clinic sponsored by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. He said the only change in the Federal Wage and Hour was the raising of the minimum wage. Overtime, child labor and exemption provisions remain the same, he declared.

Sample estimated 24 million persons are covered by the law and that 2,100,000 of them will receive a boost on wages when the law goes into effect March 1. The law was signed by President Eisenhower last August.

Sample and Paul R. Chase of Omaha answered questions on individual problems following Sample's talk.

Refrigerator Motor Causes 2 Fire Calls

A smoking refrigerator motor resulted in two early morning fire calls Monday.

The first call, at 5:26 a.m., was to Brad's Cafe at 120 So. 11, where minor damage resulted. The second call, at Woolworth's, 1109 O, was received at 6:52 a.m.

A Woolworth employee thought the building was on fire when he smelled smoke. Firemen said smoke seeped through the wall from the cafe.

N.Y. Cops Break Up $100 Call Girl Ring, Nab 'Vassar Student'

NEW YORK (INS) — Vice squad detectives cracked down on what they termed a $100-a-date call girl ring in New York Monday and arrested a former showgirl friend of Tommy Manville and a beautiful six-foot blonde who said she is a Vassar College student.

The ex-showgirl, Mrs. Jane Cook, 33, was arrested in a lavishly furnished apartment on Manhattan's East Side and charged with running an expensive call-girl ring.

Jane Stacy, the college girl she allegedly sent out on a date, was picked up nude with a man in a room in Park Avenue's exclusive Sulgrave Hotel.

Mrs. Cook was accused of procuring and Miss Stacey was booked on charges of loitering for purposes of prostitution.

Later, police arrested a man whom they said shared Mrs. Cook's apartment and booked him on three charges. He was listed as Fred Rosenberg, 26, but is also known as Goldberg and Cook.

He was free on bail on charges of using narcotics, when picked up police said.

Rosenberg was docketed for living off the proceeds of prostitution, possession of narcotics equipment and possession of narcotics.

Police said they found in the apartment eleven tablets of dilaudid, described as a derivative of morphine, and a hypodermic needle.

The raids were made simultaneously at both addresses by detectives from New York's newly-formed special vice squad.

School Holiday

Police Commissioner Stephen Kennedy said his men, monitoring Mrs. Cook's phone, heard her call Miss Stacey at the Hotel Belvedere. Miss Stacey, who told police she lives in Buffalo, N.Y., said she had checked into the hotel in the morning during the school holiday weekend.

While detectives listened in on the line, Mrs. Cook told Miss Stacey that she had a nice date for her to meet Monday afternoon, police said. Mrs. Cook told the girl the date would be worth more than $100.

Later a man phoned and Mrs. Cook told him she had a beautiful girl he could meet at the Cook apartment at 2 p.m. Mrs. Cook said she had rented a $20 a day suite in the Sulgrave Hotel for the rendezvous.

In mid-afternoon, the man and Miss Stacey met at the Cook apartment and left for the hotel together, Kennedy said. Detectives gave them time to get there. Both were nude when the room was raided.

Meanwhile, during another phone call, Mrs. Cook had arranged a date for another girl at 5 p.m., police said. The arrest of Mrs. Cook apparently ruined the arrangement.

Commissioner Kennedy said that Mrs. Cook's call-girl setup had been operating for some time and that other girls were involved.

At Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Vassar authorities said there was no student named Stacey from Buffalo on their rolls. Police said they believe the name Stacey is fictitious.

In 1954 newspapers termed Mrs. Cook a self-styled friend of Manville when two men and a girl held her up in her apartment.

Beatrice School Superintendent Is Outstanding Young Man

Lincoln Star Special
BEATRICE, Neb.—Recipient of the 1956 Beatrice "outstanding young man of the year" award Monday night was Dr. William Staerkel, superintendent of schools in the city for the past two years.

The award was made during the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet at the City Auditorium. Some 400 attended the affair and heard Tom Dr. Staerkel Collins, publicity director of the City National Bank and Trust Company of Kansas City, speak on "Hurray for Our Side."

George Kilpatrick, winner of the 1953 award and a past president of the chamber, presented the award to Dr. Staerkel on behalf of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Staerkel came to Beatrice from Eldorado, Kan., where he was high school principal. He has been termed an outstanding educator in educational circles.

A Navy veteran, Dr. Staerkel attended the University of Kansas, where he received his master's degree and Stamford University, where he received his doctorate in education. He is active in the Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, Rotary, Community Chest, American Legion, Boy Scouts and is a member of the board of the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children. He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Beatrice. He and his wife are the parents of two children.

Chamber President Dale Rist gave the annual report on chamber activities and progress. Master of ceremonies was Forrest Wilke. Certificates for service were awarded to 14 past board members and committee chairmen of the chamber.

Closer Ties Favored
VALETTA, Malta (INS) — Half the votes cast in Malta's week-end referendum showed better than three-to-one sentiment for closer ties with Britain. There were 33,396 votes for integration and representation in the London Parliament, and 10,317 votes against.

Amos Andreasen Pleads Innocent On Morals Count
Amos Andreasen, 51, of 3610 So 18th has pleaded innocent in Lancaster County Court to two charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

On the first complaint, Andreasen is charged in connection with a morals incident involving an eight-year-old girl on Jan. 30.

The second complaint alleges Andreasen to have been involved with the same girl and also a seven-year-old girl between Nov. 24 and 28.

The girls live in Andreasen's neighborhood, according to authorities. Judge Herbert A. Ronin set trial for March 3 and fixed bond at $500 on the first complaint and took the defendant's personal recognizance in the same amount on the second.

POSTCARD

Mexico is a land of surprises, says my guide book. "One is constantly confronted with pictures of striking beauty. The bend of the road opens on enchantment."

This is a pretty way to put it. I wish I had said that. The fact is it takes a good deal to surprise me in Mexico a any more.

I used to be surprised by an odd arrangement in the plumbing situation. The top of the water tank is always broken in half. I saw half-water-tank tops from Juarez to Tutla Gutierrez. Finally I asked the service station man.

"Why," he said, "These hahndie ees broken. So you must reach on the cense to open thee wahfair out, no?"

For simple people, simple answers, no?

I mention this only as a curiosity. For Mexico has quite a few things I would like to import. Telephones, for instance.

The Mexican telephone is free. Even on hotel calls. You can phone in restaurants, book stores and official offices. No charge.

There may be some difficulty getting the number. For the Mexican phone is temperamental. In Mexico City the numbers come in sizes. The dial must be manipulated firmly and slowly.

Mexico had two separate systems: Mexicana and Ericsson. I don't know whether it still has or not. The other day I saw two phones labeled so, side by side. But they may not have taken the signs down yet.

These systems are supposed to mesh. But the interlock is a delicate thing. For some reason I get Delaware Punch nearly every outgoing phone call. No matter what I dial.

"Is this De Lana Tours?"

"No, Senor, De Lana is Poonch de Mexico."

I think somebody should look into what architect makes doors in Mexico, too. These are cunningly designed and I cannot figure how it is done.

You grip the knob, turn a quarter way to open in the normal manner.

This brings your thumb to a carefully placed spot so that when you open the door, WOW! It pinches it like a pair of pliers.

There is a buzzer at my room door. This curious buzzer somehow is activated by the elevator nearby.

It buzzes when you push it. It also buzzes when the elevator performs some complicated maneuver which I have not figured out.

It is interesting a way. Because sometimes you say "Come in." And somebody comes in. Other times, nothing.

Today I said, "Come in." Three men came in and rolled up the living room rug and went out with it. I don't know whether they were rug buyers or cleaners or somebody from the hotel.

I used to ask questions about things like this. Now I just let things happen in my hotel room. They do, too. There is a man who washed down the outside balcony each morning. Today, for reasons

I do not inquire into, he took the hose and pointed it down into the street for about five minutes. I never found out why.

The valet may come late with the pressing. But he brings a whole vase of flowers.

"Ah, but these are not my pantalones."

"Not yours? How unfortunate."

"Very. Do me the favor to look for my own trousers, eh?"

"Immediately, Senor. In the little now."

Room service arrives with four bottles of ginger ale and one drink of whiskey, it seems.

"Thanks, but I ordered nothing."

"But, Senor, it says here Four Roses."

"Not for me."

"Keep it anyway," says room service philosophically. "We await the other call."

Nothing much surprises him either. He was born in Mexico.

Marriage Announced

MAJOR AND MRS. KENNETH L. FILE

Of interest to her many friends in Lincoln is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Waunita Sharp, daughter of Mrs. Charles L. Sharp and the late Mr. Sharp, to Major Kenneth L. File, son of Mr. and Mrs. James File of Springfield, Ill.

The wedding took place on Thursday, Feb. 2, at Joliet, Ill., and following the 7:30 o'clock service, a reception for a small group of friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pero in Joliet.

Major and Mrs. File left Lincoln on Sunday to make their home at Wilmington, Ill., after spending the week end as guests of Mrs. File's mother, where, as the picture shows, they devoted considerable time writing notes to notify friends of their wedding.

A former student at the University of Nebraska, the bride is a member of Beta Sigma Phi Exemplar Chapter and the Cornhusker Chapter of the National Secretaries Association in Lincoln. Major File attended the University of Wisconsin and is serving with the Air Force at the Ordnance Ammunition Command at Joliet.

Had Church Wedding

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY STILLMAN

The marriage of Miss Rachel Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan of Scotia, to Gregory Stillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stillman, also of Scotia, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, Feb. 4, at the Scotia Methodist Church. White chrysanthemums and lighted white candles decorated the chancel for the double ring service, which was read by the Rev. Clarence W. Buehler, and Miss Patricia Bredthauer, organist, played the wedding music. As the members of the family and a small group

WELL, well — where shall we start — with the nice or the un-nice? The we-don't-like-it news has to do with the departure this spring of one of Lincoln's popular young couples and their small fry—

We've just heard that Mr. and Mrs. James Nicola (Janice Campbell) and their children will be leaving sometime during the spring for Denver, Colo., where they will reside.

THE FESTIVE news of the morning involves brides-elect and one of them, Miss Barbara Dillman, whose marriage to Howard Jensen will be solemnized on March 10th, has plans for Thursday. She will go to Omaha where she will be complimented by Mrs. William Condon (Sandra Walt) of Crook, Colo., at the home of Mr. Condon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Condon.

AND before we continue with bridal courtesies we think you

Party Honors Anniversary

Forty relatives and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank surprised them at a 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock open house at their home on Sunday afternoon in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

In charge of the arrangements were Mrs. Frank's two sisters, Mrs. Floyd Crewdson of Hastings and Mrs. Ralph Bauer.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Crewdson and their daughters, Pat and Nancy.

might like to know that Mrs. Condon and her son, Billy, will be in Lincoln — next week, perhaps, for a visit with Mrs. Condon's mother, Mrs. Ernest F. Walt, before returning to Crook.

NOW back to Miss Dillman and her parties — Next Monday the bride-to-be will be complimented when Mrs. Ellis Mockett, Mrs. J. M. Neely and Mrs. Hugh Williams (Mary Jean Neely) will be hostess at the University Club. Twelve guests have been invited for luncheon and an informal afternoon.

ANOTHER bride-elect for whom the approaching week-end will be a busy one is Miss Ruth Kleinert whose marriage to Jack E. Davis will be solemnized on March 24.

On Friday evening Miss Kleinert will be honored by Mrs. William A. J. Bartek and Miss Shirley Jesse who have invited guests for a one-gift shower at the home of Mrs. Bartek.

Mr. Farber is a graduate of the University of Nebraska College of Law and a member of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. Mrs. Farber, the former Ann Eis, was a member of the University of Nebraska faculty before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Todenhoft announce the birth of a son, Walter William, on Thursday, Jan. 26, at the Nebraska Methodist Hospital in Omaha. Mrs. Todenhoft and her baby son now are the guests of Mrs. Todenhoft's mother, Mrs. R. W. # Ridgway Relieved 'Praying' General During Battle

WASHINGTON (INS) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway disclosed Monday that during World War II's "Battle of the Bulge" he demanded the replacement of another general — a close personal friend — who sought refuge in prayer.

Ridgway, a corps commander at the time, told of another American general he relieved from command in the same battle "because I found him ... far in the rear when the bulk of his division was far forward and heavily engaged — where he should have been."

The ex-Army chief of staff related these experiences in the fifth installment of his life story, which is appearing in the Saturday Evening Post.

Politics Not Mentioned

The installment, dealing with the decisive struggles of the European conflict, did not touch on such controversial matters as Ridgway's charge in an earlier chapter that the Eisenhower administration has sacrificed military strength to political expediency.

The retired four-star general related the incident of the "praying general" in these words:

"When I asked him if there was anything I could do to help him, he said 'just pray for me.' I believe in the power of prayer as strongly as any man, but this statement, made in the presence of other officers of his staff, indicated a lack of the buoyant confidence then so vitally necessary.

"With greatest reluctance — for he was a gallant soldier and a deeply respected friend — I asked for his relief."

Not Identified

Ridgway did not identify either of the division commanders he referred to as examples of military leaders who found the strain of combat "more than they could bear."

The general asserted that "sluggish actions of the ground forces" were responsible for failure of an operation in Holland which was intended to lay a "carpet" of airborne troops in front of British tanks and infantry ordered to advance across the neck of the Netherlands to the Zuider Zee.

He wrote: "I have always felt, and I still feel, that the sluggish actions of the ground forces in that campaign caused a sound, well-planned campaign to fail ...."

Almost Destroyed

"As a result of this failure, the British 1st Airborne, under its gallant commander, Major General Urquhart, was almost destroyed," Ridgway revealed that as the war neared its end he switched his plan of attack so British troops could move across in front of the American spearhead, the 7th Armored Division, and have the honor of making his command's first contact with the Russians.

He did this, he said, because "I got to thinking about Britain—and all she had suffered and endured—Dunkirk, the buzz bombs, the long, hard fight in Africa."

Wage Disputes Hamper New Bridge Project

Lincoln Star Special

OMAHA — Wage disputes which have hampered the construction of the Highway Department Center Street Bridge over the Elkhorn River on Highway 38 near Elkhorn remained at a deadlock Monday after a Sunday attempt between the union and Capital Bridge Co. of Lincoln failed to bring in a compromise.

Two of the four unions involved in the dispute have compromised on a $2.35 hourly wage. They are the Operating Engineers and Iron Workers. A third, the laborers, also has reached agreement.

Guy Byers, business representative of the Omaha Carpenters District Council, said all attempts to reach a compromise with C. Lauer Ward, president of Capital Bridge Co. of Lincoln, builders of the bridge, have failed.

In Lincoln, Ward said men were working on the 410-foot structure and work was "progressing." Since the bridge isn't to be completed until the fall, he added, the schedule has not been delayed.

Ward added that a compromise with Hod Carriers and Common Laborers Local 1140 had been reached and that only the carpenter's union was yet in dispute.

Besides the large bridge which will span the Elkhorn River, two smaller ones also are included in the contract, Ward commented.

He termed the dispute "apparently jurisdictional."

Byers said the prevailing union scale in that area is $2.82½ an hour. Wages paid by the bridge firm are from $1.50 to $1.75, he said. Byers added that for this job alone, the union was willing to compromise for $2.35 an hour as the other two unions had, but the firm had turned this offer down flat.

Farm Bureau Speaker Hits 90% Supports

Kenneth Hood, Chicago, assistant secretary of the American Farm Bureau Federation, charged in an address to more than 500 Nebraska bankers that 90 per cent of parity supports for agriculture would "nullify all the good features" in farm legislation now under consideration by Congress.

Sparking at the Correspondent Bank Forum in Lincoln, Hood charged "high rigid supports have been the chief cause of agriculture's surplus and price troubles."

For farmers, Hood said, 1956 is a year for caution, not panic. Home market for farm products, he said, should remain strong.

A prediction that 90 per cent of parity supports would be in any bill approved by Congress was made by Mark W. Pickell, Chicago, farm publication editor.

He urged that farmers support and take part in the "soil bank" plan being proposed by Agricultural Secretary Ezra Taft Benson. Pickell reported he was more optimistic of the agricultural outlook at the present than he has been for several years.

During the afternoon, the bankers took part in nine workshops on various banking subjects. The forum was sponsored by the National Bank of Commerce.

Henry Hunt Appeals Injury Claim Ruling

Henry R. Hunt, Grand Island, appealed to the Supreme Court Monday from a District Court ruling upholding the Workmen's Compensation Court. Hunt contended that he was injured Nov. 27, 1950 in a fall while changing a light bulb at St. Francis Hospital.

He alleged that he was hospitalized several times and when his claim was rejected filed court action against the hospital and the Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph for medical and hospital costs and such other compensation as the court found advisable.

School Break-In Nets Thieves Cold Hard Cash

Close to $9 in "cold hard" cash was lifted from the Belmont School some time during the weekend.

The cash, in change and stored in a deep freeze, was taken during a break-in at the school, 3324 No. 14th. About $4 in damage resulted when windows in the front door and office door were smashed to gain entrance.

The break-in was reported by R. J. Mutherbaugh, Valparaiso, an employee.

$8,065 Settlement Given Lincolnite For Injury

An $8,065.69 lump sum settlement to Robert G. McGraw of 3608 St. Marys Ave., from the Westcott-Bowen Construction Co., for accidental injury to both feet June 28, 1954, during employment as steel gang foreman, has been approved in Lancaster District Court.

Parker Motion On Statement, Bail Hearing Tuesday

Defense motions in the Darrell F. Parker case for bail bond, a copy of his signed statement, and some stomach contents will be heard Tuesday by Lancaster District Court Judge John L. Polk.

Atty. Max Towle has asked a copy of Parker's signed statement be made available to the defense, which "is considering the defense of insanity at the time he (Parker) made the said confession."

Another motion asks the court to order the remaining contents taken from the stomach of Nancy Parker, the slain wife of the defendant, be given the defense for an examination.

The defendant, who has been held at the Penitentiary since being arraigned on a first-degree murder charge, also asks the court to fix an appearance bond.

Auburn Put On Probation By SEC

Rising Football Power Barred From Bowl Games

By LEROY SIMMS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Auburn, a swiftly rising football power, Monday was barred indefinitely from post-season bowl games and placed on probation by the Southeastern Conference for giving $1,000 to high school stars last December.

Conference action was announced Monday by SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore. It was taken last week by the SEC executive committee in Atlanta. Moore said the probation bans Auburn from a bowl date next Jan. 1.

The case involved Harry and Robert Beaubie, twin halfbacks on the Emma Sansom high team at Gadsden, Ala. Assistant Coach Hal Herring of Auburn gave each of the twins $500.

The school was fined $2,000 by Moore on Dec. 21.

First In SEC History

The indefinite probation is the first in SEC history. The conference announcement included the clause that Auburn "is hereby warned that proof of further violation by its employees may lead to suspension of termination of membership" in the 12-team league.

It also asserted that Auburn "will present positive evidence to the executive committee that the administration has made substantial effort to prevent future violation" of SEC rules.

And, it added that "the conduct of Coach Hal Herring" and certain Auburn alumni "in this case was inexcusable."

Auburn, a doormat in southern football for years, sent teams to the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., after its 1953, 1954 and 1955 seasons.

Finished Second

Last year's club finished second in the conference with an 8-1-1 record and was ranked ninth nationally in the Associated Press poll.

Athletic Director Jeff Beard at Auburn said:

"We accept the judgment of the conference, of course, and we are going to live by it. I intend to write a letter to the executive committee of the conference thanking them for their hard work and cooperation through the whole thing."

The Beaubie twins had been eagerly sought by Alabama and Auburn, and were at Auburn awaiting the Dec. 7 grant-in-aid signing date when Moore warned all SEC schools not to sign them. They have indicated they would go to Tulsa University for further football, although they are eligible to accept a grant-in-aid at any SEC school except Auburn.

Kansas State Tips Wyoming

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—Kansas State held off a late Wyoming surge to grab a 7-7 basketball victory Monday night.

K-State enjoyed a 76-60 bulge with 3 minutes 22 seconds left in the game. But scrappy Joe Capua, the Skyline team's all-conference guard, sparked a comeback that netted 12 straight points for the Cowboys.

Then Pachin Vincens bucketed an easy layup with 23 seconds to go to put the Wildcats out of reach.

The lead changed hands eight times early in the game before K-State went out in front for good at 28-26 on a basket by Vincens. The Wildcats increased the margin to 40-32 at half time.

Kansas State, which hit 51 per cent of its shots, was led in the scoring column by 6-foot-9 center Jack Parr with 25 points. Forward Hayden Abbott clicked for 20 and guard Vincens wound up with 18.

All took a back seat to Capua, however, as the 5-foot-10 guard netted 32 tallies.

The victory gave K-State a split of its 2-game trek into the Rocky Mountain region. The Wildcats dropped a 71-53 Big Seven conference match to Colorado at Boulder Saturday night.

Holstein Regains Spot As Top Team In Class E

By RON GIBSON

Star Sports Staff Member

Holstein, the defending Class E state basketball champion, regains the leadership in its division of The Star's ratings after a one-week absence.

Holstein takes the top spot from Bellwood Marietta, the team which replaced Holstein last week. Marietta was upset by Rising City in the Butler County Tournament while Holstein zipped through the Mid-Rivers Tourney with three convincing wins.

There were no changes in the leaders in Classes B, C and D, although there is a wide-open Class B race with district tournaments less than a week away.

Minden kept its Class B leadership. Clarkson is the pace-setter in Class C, and Utica is still tops in Class D.

Minden scored an easy win over Cambridge last week. The Whippets' only losses are to Clark A leader Cozad and to sometimes-tough University High.

Wayne is still second after whipping West Point and Wisner, and remains unbeaten in Class B competition. Columbia St. Bonaventure advanced from fifth to third as Grand Island St. Mary's took a tumble.

St. Mary's fell from third to fifth after a second loss to Shelton in the Tri-Valley Tournament. Hebron beat University High and Desher to cement its fourth-place hold.

Central City, showing an 8-6 record but only two losses in Class B games, is sixth ahead of Loup City. Loup City's only defeat is a wallowing by Central City. University High is eighth.

Sutton ranks ahead of Hastings St. Cecilia, new in the chart this week. St. Cecilia has lost only to Grand Island St. Mary's and to Hebron, and may be a tough team in the tournaments.

Aurora dropped from the ratings after losing to Fullerton but must still be rated as a contender along with Gibbon and Pender. Pender, idle last week, fell from the ratings.

Clarkson continues to roll in high gear and heads the Class C chart for the second week. Clarkson whipped through the Mid-State Tournament to run its win streak to 18 games.

Chadron Prep added wins over Rushville, Gordon and Hay Springs to continue in second place. Arcadia is again third.

Shelton suffered its first loss and slipped from fourth to sixth. The loss, at the hands of Hastings St. Cecilia in the Tri-Valley tournament, enabled Waverly and Genoa to advance.

New Teams

Walhalla is again seventh in Class C, and three new teams fill out the Top Ten.

Geneva, Creighton and Osceola replace Norfolk Sacred Heart, Harvard and Seward Concordia.

Sacred Heart lost one of its stars when Ralph Vincent was sidelined with an ankle injury, and lost to Winside and Battle Creek. Harvard was idle due to the hepatitis epidemic which caused the closing of school. Concordia has now lost four.

Creighton's only loss was to Wausa, and it was later recovered. Geneva has lost only once in Class C, and has tangled with some toughies in higher classes. Osceola has three Class C losses, one a two-pointer to unbeaten Geneva.

Defending Class D champion Western moved from sixth to fourth in the ratings. The two-time Class D kings look strong and expect for a loss to Class E Tobias would be in the lead.

Western appears to be making a strong stretch run and should do well in tournament play, but may have trouble overhauling the top three in Class D—Utica, Brady and Springfield. These clubs remain unbeaten.

Wilcox lost for the first time last week and slipped from fourth to eighth. Johnson remained in seventh despite a loss to Class B Tecumseh; Verdon is a new team in sixth place. Verdon kept its comparatively short unbeaten streak going by buzzing through the Richard County Big Eight tournament unbeaten.

Indianola enters the chart at ninth, one notch ahead of Inman. Campbell lost to Class E Holstein and fell from the list. Campbell and Hershey rate as the top threats outside the Top Ten.

Holstein On Top

Holstein's rise to the top in Class E was the big change in that bracket. Tobias, Farwell and Oteo kept pace with the advance, and Marietta dropped to fifth—not a bad spot in this strong field.

Melbeta fell from the chart after a loss to Madrid, and Prague is in the list again at 10th after a short absence.

Strong Louisville Added To Roster For NIT Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Louisville, ranked fifth nationally, was added to the National Invitation Basketball Tournament list Monday, leaving only five spots to be filled in the 12-team field.

Previously selected for the big post-season show at Madison Square Garden March 17-24 were Duquesne, Dayton, Seton Hall, St. Francis of Brooklyn, Marquette and Xavier of Ohio.

Louisville was chosen although four members of its team are playing their fourth year of basketball, forbidden under National Collegiate Athletic Assn. rules.

"We abide by conference area rules," said Walter McLaughlin, president of the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Assn., the sponsoring organization.

Louisville isn't in a major conference but plays in the area of the Southeastern Conference which has no bar against four-year athletes.

The players are Phil Rollins, Dick Keffer, Herb Harrah and Gerry Moreman. Rollins broke his hand Jan. 11 against Marquette but now is ready to return to action. He is one of the team's outstanding performers.

The Cardinals are the only team with a victory this year over Dayton, which ranks second in the Associated Press poll behind unbeaten San Francisco. They beat Dayton 66-64 in an overtime Jan. 28.

Gering at Scottsbluff—Scottsbluff is favored to repeat an earlier win. Auburn at Falls City—Falls City to win handily.

Minden at Lexington—Minden, but it could be close. Tecumseh at Crete—Crete should win, Tecumseh may press.

Wayne at Columbus St. Bonaventure—Edge here goes to Wayne in night's best Class B game.

Wood River at Aurora—Aurora off and on, should win this one. Sutton at Geneva—Choice is Sutton, but Geneva capable of upset.

Hebron at Seward Concordia—Hebron is the choice.

Richmond Tripped By Wake Forest

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Wake Forest staged a brilliantly-executed freeze in the last 5 minutes to blunt Richmond's comeback attempt here Monday night and beat the Spiders 73-68 for its 16th basketball victory.

Wake Forest's two watch-charm guards, Jackie Murdock and Ernie Wiggins, were the key figures in the slowdown, which enabled the Deacons to hold a lead they'd had all the way.

Wake Forest led 6-5 after 5 minutes and at one time had a commanding 11-point bulge.

Baseball Prices Up Slightly

By DON BRYANT

Sports Editor, The Star

The Lincoln Chiefs Monday announced a two-fold change for 1956, one to provide more general admission seats for the fans and the other to provide a slight increase in revenue.

In order to offer more general admission seats in the grandstand, the Chiefs have reduced the number of reserved seats from 810 to 680.

And to help fight inflation, adult bleacher and adult box seat tickets have been increased 15 and 10 cents respectively.

All other prices, including children's tickets and season box seats, remain unchanged.

Here is the 1956 ticket price schedule:

Adult box seats, $1.35 (increase of 10 cents)

Adult reserved seats, $1.15 (no change)

Adult grandstand, 90 cents (no change)

Adult bleacher, 75 cents (increase of 15 cents)

Children's general admission, 45 cents; bleachers, 30 cents.

"The price increases are being made with great reluctance after a most thorough study of admission prices of all the 22 teams of Class A," a Chiefs' spokesman said Monday. "But even with these changes the Lincoln prices remain the lowest of all Western League teams."

Comparative information shows only two parks in the Western League offered bleacher prices in 1955—Sioux City (75 cents) and Lincoln (60 cents). All other teams charged general admission price for bleacher seats.

Another interesting aspect of the price situation is that Lincoln had the lowest average ticket price in 1955 and even with the new increase will still have the lowest average in 1956.

The average ticket price in 1955:

Wichita, $1.15; Colorado Springs, $1.06; Des Moines, $1.04; Sioux City, $0.99; Pueblo, $0.93; and Lincoln, $0.86.

The new Lincoln average (Lincoln has the smallest park by almost 2,000 seats) will be $0.93, five cents lower than Pueblo.

"Baseball admissions have failed to keep pace with general increased cost of living," the Chiefs' spokesman said in making the announcement. "Costs of most items we buy have greatly increased since 1947 and we are still paying 10 per cent federal admission tax."

It is the plan of the Chiefs' board of directors to continue Sherman Field improvements for the benefit of the fans and it is hoped the increase in the two prices will help achieve this aim.

"The Lincoln club is most interested in continuing improvements at Sherman Field for all concerned," the club spokesman said. "Possible gain from these increases will be used to further that program."

Holmesville Wins 15th, Tips Virginia

HOLMESVILLE—Rich Ideus paced Holmesville to its 15th win in 16 games Tuesday night, scoring 20 points as Holmesville beat Virginia 79-43.

Kent Wrightsman and Don Wrightsman backed Ideus with 12 points each. Loren Goracke was Virginia's high-point man with 29 points.

Virginia 18 15 24 22—79

Holmesville 9 11 14 14—43

Tailor Made SEAT COVERS

Nashua To Get Brisk Workout

By GENE PLOWDEN
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Nashua, the 1-2 favorite to win the $100,000 added Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park Saturday, will get a "brisk" workout early today in preparation for the mile and a quarter feature.

Nashua will be vanned to Tropical Park, some five miles south of Hialeah, and will be given a turn around the track by his regular exercise boy, Bill McCleary, before the workout.

Then he will be returned to the Tropical Park paddock to pick up jockey Ted Atkinson for his morning workout.

John Fitzsimmons, assistant and son of Trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, said Nashua will carry a heavy saddle in addition to Atkinson and probably will have 125 pounds on his back.

Return To Hialeah
After the workout, Nashua will be returned to Hialeah where he has been since last Christmas Eve.

The Tropical Park racing strip will be used because Hialeah's track, soaked by showers Saturday, was slow in drying out and was still "heavy" for Monday's program despite bright sunshine and brisk winds.

Tropical Park, which ended its regular season Jan. 16, has kept the running strip open to accommodate horses stabled there. Fitzsimmons said Nashua's workout probably will be around 9 o'clock because the track closes at 10.

Nashua galloped twice around the Hialeah track Monday with two members of the syndicate which owns him looking on, Leslie Combs II head of a group that paid $1,251,000 for the son of Nasrullah last Dec. 15, was at the track, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Christopher J. Devine of New York. Devine also is a member of the syndicate and it was his first look at the handsome 4-year-old bay colt.

Nashua was assigned top weight of 127 pounds for the Widener and jockey Eddie Arcaro is flying from California to handle him in the big race.

Next to Nashua in the early Widener line are Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Find and Social Outcast at 5-1, Brookmeade Stable's Sailor is 6-1, followed by Dr. Carlos Vogel's Rincones' El Chama, Venezuelan star, and the Hasty House band of Sea O Erin, Mr. Black, Bryn and Prince Noor at 8-1.

Frank C. Rand's Prince Morvi, which is expected to compete in the $25,000 added Bougainvilleau on the turf Wednesday and then come back for the Widener, is 20-1 in the richer event. Prince Morvi, flown to this country after an impressive record in Australia, is to be ridden by Arcaro in the Wednesday feature at a mile and three sixteenths.

Badgers Upset Indiana, 69-67

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Wisconsin's oft-beaten Badgers scrambled back three times from 10-point deficits and upset Indiana University's basketball team Monday night, 69-67. Guard Dick Miller scored 22 points for the winners.

Miller, although outscored by Wally Choice's 27 points for Indiana, was the hero of a wild finish.

With 12 seconds to play and Wisconsin leading 69-66, Indiana's Jerry Thompson was awarded two free throws. He made the first. Coach Bud Foster of the Badgers, sure Thompson would miss the second deliberately, tried to send in 6-foot-6½ sub Ray Gross but was overruled by officials.

Thompson missed the free throw and Miller hauled down the rebound. He stepped out of bounds with 1 second to play. Center Archie Dees tried to tip in a basket on Thompson's pass in but missed.

Gophers Defeat Michigan State

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Dave Tucker revitalized Minnesota's faltering basketball forces Monday night to steer a 77-73 victory over Michigan State after the Gophers blew a 14-point lead in the face of Julius McCoy's second-half scoring.

Tucker, a muscular 6-3 forward who brought Minnesota an uphill victory over Wisconsin two nights ago, pumped in 26 points against the favored Spartans and hit two decisive baskets with 3 minutes remaining to put the Gophers in front to stay.

Behind the combined 29-point output of Tucker and Ted Domeyer in the first half, Minnesota held a 43-36 margin at intermission after leading at one point 41-27.

Smallwood, Drake Draw

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Hardy (Bazooka) Smallwood and Ray Drake, two New York middleweights, battled to a 10-round draw tonight at St. Nicholas Arena when Drake was penalized two rounds for holding and hitting after the bell. Drake weighed 159½, Smallwood 158½.

Referee Ray Miller actually took the decision from Drake by the two penalties, although he voted for Drake 6-4.

He took away the fifth because Drake grabbed Smallwood around the neck with his left while whaling away with his right. Drake also lost the ninth for hitting after the bell.

Judge Artie Aidala scored it for Smallwood 5-4-1 and Judge Nick Gamboli 5-5 with 5 points for each man. The AP card had Smallwood on top 5-4-1 for his persistent, but often ineffective, work.

Ohio State Threatened By Dayton

DAYTON, O. (AP)—The University of Dayton Monday threatened to go to the NCAA unless Ohio State Basketball Coach Floyd Stahl retracts his statement that Dayton Coach Tom Blackburn "tampered" with two Buckeye players.

Mike Allen, former Ohio State sophomore reserve center, transferred to Dayton last week a few days after Stahl had made his "tampering" accusation.

The Rev. Charles Collins, Dayton's director of admissions and athletic board chairman, said Monday he had sent a letter to Stahl asking him to "affirm, deny or modify the charge" against Blackburn.

"Mr. Richard Larkins, Ohio State's athletic director replied to the letter mentioned," said Rev. Collins, "and his reply is evasive and unsatisfactory. Many readers throughout the country have been given no opportunity to be informed that the accusation is false."

"It is my duty to safeguard the reputation of Mr. Blackburn and to alleviate the harm done the University of Dayton," Rev. Collins continued. "Unless forestalled by an adequately publicized retraction, this matter will be referred to the NCAA."

Duquesne Stopped By Cincinnati

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The University of Cincinnati basketball team, ahead 37-34 at the end of the first half, went on a scoring rampage in the final 20 minutes to swamp Duquesne 95-79. The victory, second over the Dukes this season, gave the Ohioans a 15-4 record while skidding Duquesne now has a 10-9 mark.

The defeat was a humiliating one for the Dukes as it marked the most points scored against them in history. In 1938, at Cleveland, a touring Stanford team walloped the Dukes 95-79.

Bonsalle and Ridley tallied 25 points each to lead the Illinois attack, but Michigan's Ron Kramer garnered scoring honors with 26 points, hitting on a free throw after the Illinois stars had retired.

Illinois led all the way but was cold in the first half and maintained its lead on an excellent free throw average.

Illinois lunged to a 22-10 lead as Michigan came back with 7 straight points to tighten the gap. The Illini spurred to a 38-25 lead but Michigan again closed in by scoring the last 7 points of the first half, leaving Illinois ahead, 38-32.

All first round games will be played Feb. 20, with semifinals Feb. 22 and finals Feb. 23.

Illinois Rambles To 14th Straight

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Paced by George Bonsalle and Bill Ridley, Illinois Monday night rambled to its 14th straight basketball victory and eight without defeat in the Big 10, blasting Michigan, 89-66.

The triumph enabled Illinois to remain one game ahead of hard-pressing Iowa which dumped Purdue, 88-75.

City-County Building Answer Due Soon

Brehm To Give Stand In Letter

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Lancaster County Board Chairman Russell Brehm said Monday that he is "preparing a letter to Mayor Clark Jeary outlining the county's position" in the joint city-county building controversy.

The letter will "probably be ready for delivery sometime Tuesday," Brehm said.

In a letter to Brehm, Jeary said the city had directed its legal department to work with the county in drafting articles of incorporation for the building authority.

Waiting For County

"We are now waiting for the county board to do likewise," he added.

The county board wants some measure be put on the election ballot by mid-summer, even if the county must plan a separate building.

"The county is still willing to co-operate with the city in obtaining a joint building," Brehm said. "But the need for a new city hall is apparently not as great as for a new county courthouse and the city council has not been as anxious as the commissioners to meet the problem."

With Feet On Ground

Brehm said he "would assure the mayor that the final decision made by the commissioners would be with their feet firmly on the ground and with discussions and conferences with numerous civic organizations and individuals."

One area of the controversy between the city and county is apparently over the appointment of the Joint Building Authority.

The Authority enabling legislation provides that the county and city each appoint two members with the fifth to be named jointly, or by the governor if agreement cannot be reached.

'Check Rein' Feared

Some county officials fear the city would be inclined to "check rein" their appointees on the Authority.

On the other hand, Jeary's letter indicates the city would not consent to a "light touch of the whip" to be applied by the county in the appointments.

Next move by the county as to appointing an Authority is not clear, but Brehm's letter may shed more light on the county's next possible step.

STATE OFFICIAL CHARGES:

Federal Money Would Turn School Agency To 'Enforcement'

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

Proposed federal aid to education would change the State Department of Education from an administrative to an enforcement agency, according to Floyd Parker of that department.

Speaking at the first quarterly meeting of the Nebraska Council for Better Education in Lincoln Monday, Parker pointed out that laws governing the federal aid would call upon the states to distribute the funds available to the various school districts.

Work is now being done, he said, to set up certain criteria for eligibility of federal funds on the part of local districts. This means, he said, that the department would have to enforce laws, which in some cases might not be a pleasant task.

Self-Help Evidence

One requirement for eligibility now being considered, he said, is for a kindergarten through 12th grade program for any district seeking federal assistance. Districts will also have to show evidence of self help, possibly some amount of bonded debt, he said.

If funds are allotted by the state on a per pupil basis, he said, it will be for resident pupils only.

Federal funds that may become available, Parker said, are actually very small compared with the needs of the state.

$2-3 Million Seen

Under the administration's bill now under consideration by Congress, Nebraska would receive $2.6 million a year for five years, he said. Under the Kelley Bill in the House, Nebraska's share would amount to $3.2 million a year for four years.

But by 1960, Parker estimated, educational facilities in Nebraska will have to be expanded by $105 million. By that time, he pointed out, 1,400 new classrooms will be needed and some 2,100 existing classroom facilities will have to be replaced.

Aid Said 'Inevitable'

According to John E. Lynch, Nebraska State Education Association, federal aid to education is inevitable. He presented Nebraska Congressional delegation in Washington as unsympathetic toward such federal action.

In another address, the Council heard Sen. Glenn Cramer of Albion stress what he termed as "mistakes" being made in the field of education. He listed first the "mistake" of emphasizing the problems of re-distribution of school districts.

The discussion on this subject, he said, has led many people to believe that consolidation of districts would solve all the problems of education. Even with re-distribution, he said, there would be problems of a teacher shortage, small classrooms and certification.

He listed also as a "mistake"

Weather Bureau Cites Scottsbluff Tornado 'Warners'

Hosey And Brintzenhofe Win Medals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Weather Bureau meteorologists Monday were awarded department meritorious service awards for showing "unusual courage and competence" when a tornado struck Scottsbluff, Neb., last June 27.

Recipients of the silver medal award are James N. Hosey of Scottsbluff and Richard A. Brintzenhofe, now stationed at the Weather Bureau's national weather analysis center at Suitland, Md. Brintzenhofe was at Scottsbluff from 1952 through 1955.

The Weather Bureau said the two men were credited with saving many lives through their accurate recognition of a tornado situation and relaying warnings and reports of the storm's movement to two local radio stations. They remained at their post until the tornado was within one mile of the weather station.

Hosey and Brintzenhofe are among 11 weather bureau employees awarded the distinguished service medal this year. Brintzenhofe and others in the Washington area will receive their awards Tuesday in a ceremony at the Commerce department building. The medals will be presented later to those outside the Washington area.

John W. Hamilton, Oklahoma City meteorologist, was awarded the silver medal for his "superior performance" in warning the public during a series of tornadoes in Oklahoma City last May.

Before his transfer to the Weather Bureau at Oklahoma City in January 1955, Hamilton served at Des Moines, Ia., where he successfully inaugurated a new method of tracking storms by radar.

Other recipients of distinguished service awards are Roy E. Lundquist, hydrologist in charge of the river forecast center in Cincinnati, and Martin Hovide, Minnesota meteorologist who retired from the Weather Bureau last Nov. 30 after 51 years of service.

Val 'Almost Certain' For CAB Position

OMAHA (AP)—The World-Herald Monday quoted a "high Republican source" as saying Federal Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson "almost certainly" will be named chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

In Washington, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said in reply to questions that he had no information regarding the possibility of Peterson being named to the CAB post.

The former Nebraska governor has been rumored as a possible nominee to replace Ross Risley, board chairman, who was nominated Friday by President Eisenhower to be a federal district judge in Oklahoma.

The World-Herald Washington Bureau quoted Peterson as saying all he knew about the possibility of going to CAB was what he had read in the newspapers. He said, though, he had rejected several weeks ago a position outside the government that would have paid him considerably more than his present $17,500 salary. The CAB post pays $15,000.

The newspaper said there had been reports that the Motion Picture Owners of America had been negotiating with Peterson to become president of that organization and "there were indications these negotiations are still continuing."

Nebraska's December Retail Sales Below Christmas Of '54

Nebraska retail sales in December failed to match the 1954 Christmas season, falling 6.3 per cent behind a year ago.

Business in Nebraska, a monthly bulletin prepared by the University of Nebraska's department of business research, reported department stores, "a particularly good gauge of the Christmas trade, were down 4 per cent from 1954."

The larger declines in December, however, occurred in the building material lines, down 26.1 per cent, and among furniture dealers, down 9.2 per cent.

Rural Down Most
"The rural counties declined the most, being almost 10 per cent off

Blue Shield, Blue Cross Coverage Up

OMAHA (AP)—The executive director of Nebraska Blue Cross and Blue Shield said the health and surgical plans "are trying to meet the market on what people want and are willing to pay for."

"The trend is toward more comprehensive coverage," said Joseph Burger.

"This is a fast moving situation." Burger reported to the annual meeting of Nebraska Blue Cross. Blue Shield's meeting was held three weeks ago.

Burger told a reporter Blue Cross, as of Dec. 31, covered 225,000 persons in Nebraska, an increase of about 10,000 over the year before. Blue Shield coverage on the same date was close to 200,000, up 6,500 from the year before.

Over 65 Plan
During the past year, he said, Blue Cross introduced new comprehensive type coverage paying full cost of a semi-private hospital room for 120 days for each admission, plus other hospital costs in full.

Another new plan allows persons over 65 to enroll under Blue Cross. Burger said very few of the other 85 Blue Cross organizations in the United States and Canada have yet adopted such plans.

"We are experimenting in that field," he said.

"Hospital costs have been on the increase in this area — more markedly in Omaha and Lincoln," Burger reported.

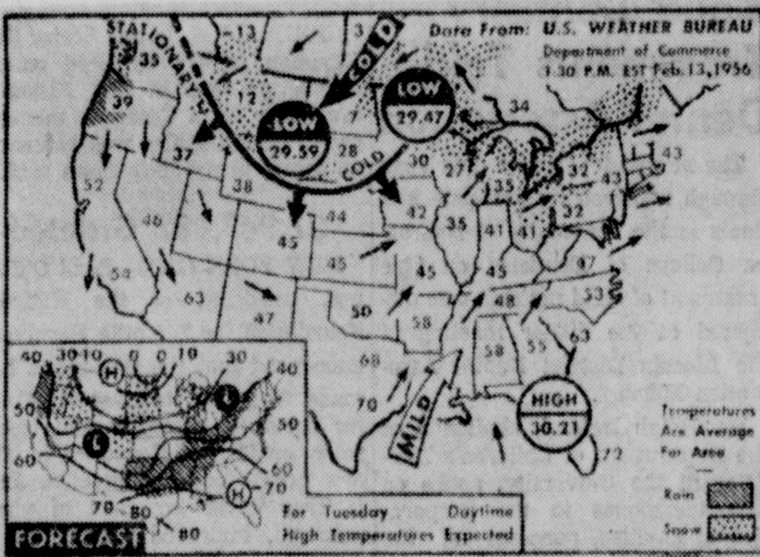

"I couldn't say what the percentage is, but it has been a material increase," he said. The increase last year followed some leveling off of hospital costs in 1954, he added.

Tops U. S. Average
Blue Cross in Nebraska paid out "close to three million dollars" and Blue Shield about two million dollars last year, he said. Both figures are tentative and subject to audit.

He said that in 1955 there were 148 admissions for every 1,000 persons covered by Blue Cross (the national average is only 135); 875 hospital days were serviced per 1,000 persons covered, and 82 per cent of premium income, subject to audit, was paid out.

Valentine Gets 7,000 Covers For Cancelling

VALENTINE, Neb. (AP)—Assistant Postmaster George Brockley said 7,000 covers were sent here this year for Valentine's Day cancellation.

The distinctive stamp carries a heart and the words: "Saint and City Greetings from Valentine, Neb."

The total was about 3,000 less than last year and down from a top of 18,000 in 1948.

Brockley explained the number decreases as more and more stamp collectors add it to their collections.

Many Valentine residents send out Valentines instead of Christmas greetings, and these also carry the distinctive stamp. They were not included in the 7,000 total.

End Of Farm Surpluses Advocated For Helping Return Higher Prices

OMAHA (AP)—Allen B. Kline, former president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said Monday it is a fallacy to assume that continuation of high government farm price supports which got us into trouble will get us out of it.

The Vinton, Ia., farmer said the economic situation is due to the "extraordinary" carry-over of surplus commodities, mostly in the hands of the government.

"As long as we have an excessive surplus, prices will be depressed," he said. "Some people are so bankrupt in intelligence that they want to continue the program which collected the surplus."

"I think the soil-bank plan might work pretty well for three or four years," he said, "if we keep our eyes on the ball, expand markets and get rid of surpluses. We must get the farm plant down to what will sell profitably."

He said the soil-bank program "should be as voluntary as possible."

Kline was here for a speaking engagement.

Russia Claims U.S., British Plans For Mid-East Threaten Peace

... Soviets Offer To Co-Operate

MOSCOW (INS) — Russia charged Monday night that U.S.-British plans for the Middle East threaten peace in the area, and warned the Western partners against sending troops there on their own.

The accusation and warning were contained in a statement released by the Soviet Foreign Ministry as a result of the recent talks between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden.

Russia offered to "co-operate" in "consolidating security" in the tension-ridden area.

Western observers interpreted the statement as a warning that if the West dispatched troops to the Middle East to defend the peace, without agreement of the security council and the states involved, Russia would take the issue to the United Nations.

No Intention

(Officials in Washington said Monday the U.S. and Britain have no intention of sending troops without U.N. sanction or an invitation from the Arab states and Israel.)

(Tension has been increasing in the Middle East since Russia sanctioned the arms deal between Czechoslovakia and Egypt. There have been reports that the West might consider a plan to place an international force on the Arab-Israeli frontiers to keep the peace.)

The Foreign Office said if the West sent troops to the Middle East on its own, it would amount to a "crude" violation of the U.N. charter. The settlement added that any "complication" or increase of tension in the area "cannot fail to be of concern" to the Soviet government.

The statement said recent newspaper stories had said "certain powers intend to send troops" to the Middle East.

(Editor's note: The U.S. and Britain in the Washington talks agreed on the broad objective of defending Middle East peace, but announced no specific steps toward this end. The problem of how to keep the peace in the area was turned over to U.S., British and French officials in Washington by Eisenhower and Eden.

In London, Prime Minister Eden told the House of Commons Britain and the U.S. were ready to guarantee the frontiers that may be achieved in an Arab-Israeli settlement. He was reporting on his recent meeting with Eisenhower.

(Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion told Parliament in Jerusalem that the year 1956 will determine whether there will be peace or war with the Arab states.)

(The Egyptian press in Cairo warned March may bring a "crisis" in the Middle East.)

Threats to Peace

The Soviet Foreign Ministry statement said that the joint Eisenhower-Eden statements on the "separate measures" planned for the Middle East "can not but create threats to the peace and security of the Near and Middle East, and can not but violate the independence and sovereignty of countries in the region."

The Foreign Ministry said France was "dragged" into the plans, which it was alleged would "force on countries in the Near and Middle East the will of certain foreign circles."

The interest of these "foreign circles," the statement continued, was "alien to the national aspirations of the people in the area. Russian offered 'together with other states concerned,' to co-operate to 'consolidate security' in the area."

As for reports of plans to send troops to defend the peace in the area, the Foreign Office statement said this would be "an obvious contradiction of the interest in strengthening peace." Instead, it was charged, it would create "a hotbed of dangerous disputes and tensions" which would "obstruct the possibility" of settling Arab-Israeli disputes.

Prior to that time she was a case worker with the Lancaster County Relief Bureau. She is on the board of directors of the Cedars Home and has been a very active worker in the home. The club presented the award in connection with National Crime Prevention Week which started Monday. (Star Photo.)

Robbery Seen As Motive In Cub Murder

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—A law officer suggested robbery Monday as the probable motive in the slaying of a 9-year-old Cub Scout. Meanwhile, two brothers still insisted they were innocent of the crime.

Prosecutor Joseph Gompers said "robbery probably was the motive because money probably was taken" from the victim, David Powell. David was selling tickets to a neighborhood Cub Scout show when he disappeared last Thursday evening.

His body—the skull shattered—was found next day beneath the front porch of the Thomas Williams' home. Williams' 14-year-old twin sons, Thomas Jr. and Joseph, are charged with murder.

The father said Monday, "I am convinced my boys had nothing to do with it. David was at my house Wednesday to sell tickets to the show and my wife told him to come back on payday. David played with my boys. They got along good together."

Gompers said he would not present the case to the Ohio County grand jury which convenes tomorrow. He hasn't received a report from state police on an analysis of stains found on trousers of one of the twins.

Nor has he received a report on a lie detector test given by Cpl. James Baisden of the state police to the twins and 12-year-old Leo Bradford, a playmate.

Aumont, Pavan Deny Rumors Of Marriage

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jean Pierre Aumont and Marisa Pavan Monday denied a published report they were to be married soon. "Just very good friends," they said.

Aumont, once one of Grace Kelly's suitors, declined further comment, but Miss Pavan, twin sister of Pier Angeli, laughed as she added:

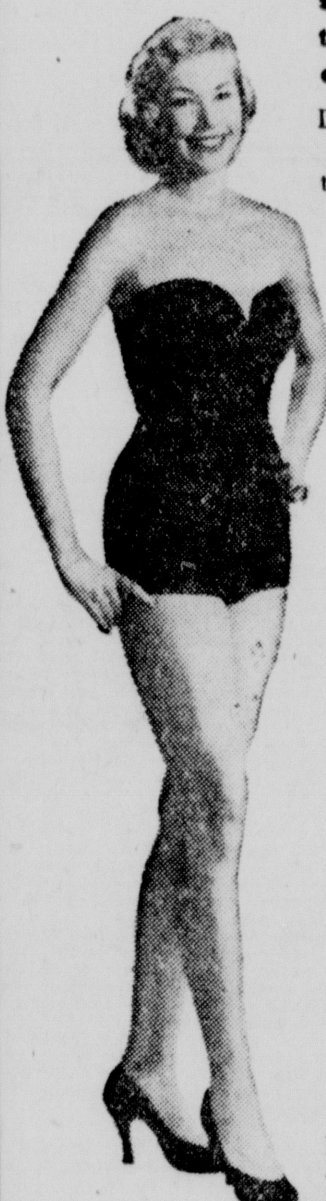

"They're rushing things. There's nothing of the sort yet."

End clogged-up nose sleep better tonight

Thousands find this method keeps nose clear all night long

Dry or dusty air, "smog," a head cold, overheated room, allergy . . . all can cause night nose clogging, spoiling your sleep and forcing you into harmful mouth breathing.

Thousands have found that Mentholatum quickly ends this annoying problem. Just apply Mentholatum in each nostril at bedtime. Instantly your nose feels clearer and, during the night, Mentholatum's soothing action relieves that dry, stuffy feeling. Congestion eases and you breathe normally through your nose.

*Why Mouth Breathing is Harmful

When a clogged nose forces you to breathe through your mouth, you send chilled dry air, laden with dust and germs, directly into your lungs. This and snoring, of course, go hand in hand. Mentholatum in the nose at night ends harmful mouth breathing.

Judge Adjourns Trucking Firms Labor Hearing

OMAHA (AP)—Federal Judge James A. Donohoe late Monday adjourned for an indefinite period a labor hearing involving a union and two trucking firms.

The National Labor Relations Board seeks an injunction barring Local 534, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, from "encouraging work stoppages and engaging in other harassing practices" in attempting to organize the Clark Bros. and Coffey's Transfer firms.

The adjournment was ordered after five witnesses for the trucking firms testified.

Clark operates from Omaha and Norfolk, Coffey from Alma, Omaha, Lincoln and Holdrege.

Unveiling Catastrophe in Big Quake Accord With U.S.—British None Hurt

... Russ Hit In Ex-Diplomats Case

LONDON (AP)—The British told the Russians Monday the sudden Moscow unveiling of Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess could not drive a wedge between Britain and the United States.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd accused Kremlin leaders of "black of candor" in pretending for more than four years they knew nothing about the former diplomats who vanished from British sight May 12, 1951.

Lloyd told a tense House of Commons the Russians would fail if they tried to make propaganda use of the ex-diplomats to drive a wedge—as he put it—between the United States and Britain.

Why Timing?
He said the Russians might have timed the unveiling of the two men to upset the accord reached between Prime Minister Eden and President Eisenhower in their recent Washington talks.

The foreign secretary was commenting on speculation in government circles that the Kremlin brought forth the renegade Britons to revive American doubts about the sharing of atomic and other secrets with Britain.

Recent Denial
Lloyd said Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev only recently had parried British queries about Burgess and Maclean, reporting they knew nothing of their whereabouts.

TOKYO (Tuesday) (AP)—A frightening earthquake hit Tokyo with a crack and a long roll at 9:54 a.m. today but the city apparently escaped damage.

The underground jolt rattled and shook big steel and concrete buildings for about 30 seconds. Quiet soon returned to the oft-rocked nation's capital.

The Central Meteorological Observatory said the quake hit 4 on a scale of 7 for maximum intensity.

The center of the quake was spotted about 50 miles north of Tokyo and 30 miles underground. The earth apparently absorbed most of the shock and held damage to a minimum of shattered glassware and nerves.

Few residents could recall such a violent quake in the capital since the war. Two smaller quakes rocked Tokyo last Friday.

Guests at the swank Imperial Hotel bolted for the doors when the quake shook the building furiously.

The Imperial, built in 1922 by Frank Lloyd Wright, is almost the only major building that survived the great Tokyo earthquake and fire of 1923 when more than 100,000 were killed.

NU's 87th Year To Be Celebrated Across U.S.

The University of Nebraska will celebrate its 87th birthday Wednesday and alumni clubs across the nation will celebrate the birthday with charter-day programs.

The charter establishing the institution was signed Feb. 15, 1869. But on the University's first birthday the campus was empty of students as the first classes did not begin until the fall of 1871, when 20 students were enrolled.

During its 84 years of operation, the University has given 54,558 degrees and during the past 12 months, 1,627 degrees. More than 300,000 students have attended the University.

3,000 State Irrigation Wells To Be Drilled In '56—Reed

Eugene C. Reed, director of the Conservation and Survey Division of the University of Nebraska, announced that he expects an estimated 3,000 irrigation wells to be drilled in Nebraska this year—a 25 per cent increase.

He spoke to the opening session of the ninth annual Utilities Conference, held at the Student Union. Approximately 60 supervisors and operators of Nebraska utility systems registered.

Reed said that at the end of 1956 about 15,000 wells would be operating in Nebraska.

'Not Too Many'

He explained that there was no evidence that the number of wells was too large for the amount of groundwater in Nebraska. "There are a few isolated areas where there is overdevelopment," he said, "but not on a large scale."

According to a 1954 survey which was completed recently, the groundwater was only 19/100th of a foot below the average, "which shows that the supply is holding up quite well," he said.

Discussing the southcentral area of Nebraska, consisting of 17 counties with more than 10 per cent of the total land surface of the state, he said that the annual recharge was about 900,000 acre feet. He explained that this recharge would allow irrigation of about one-sixth of the land surface within safety limits.

The groundwater storage in this area was recorded at 202 million acre feet of water. Reed estimated that if 100 per cent of the land surface in these 17 counties was placed under irrigation, the reserve would last about 45 years.

In Nebraska, the Omaha alumni club will celebrate the birthday Feb. 23 at the Fontenelle Hotel, with Football Coach Pete Elliott as speaker, James S. Pittenger, Nebraska alumni secretary reported. Committee members for the event are Fred Gland, Mrs. C. S. Haselbach, and John Savage, all of Omaha.

Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin will be the main speaker at charter-day programs in March at Kansas City and Cleveland, O. Bill Orwig, director of intercollegiate athletics, will speak Feb. 24 at the Denver Alumni Club program. Earlier this month, Prof. Clifford Hicks, of the College of Business Administration spoke to the Rochester, N. Y., and Schenectady, N. Y. clubs.

Other cities planning to hold charter-day programs are: Indianapolis, and Cleveland, O., Feb. 15; Houston, Tex., Feb. 17; Los Angeles and Washington, D. C., Feb. 18; and Seattle, Wash., Feb. 29.

Plans for Charter Day observances are in the tentative stages for alumni clubs at Ames, Ia., Long Beach, Calif.; San Diego, Calif.; San Francisco; Chicago; Evansville, Ind.; Detroit, Buffalo, N. Y.; and New York City.
